

Connect with a Googler

The Connect with a Googler program puts you in touch with volunteer Googlers who can share their experiences at Google. These conversations are solely meant to be informational. These Googlers are not part of the hiring process and simply want to help provide an insider's perspective on our culture and work. Participation in the program has no impact on the hiring process, and is not evaluative in nature.*

Interested in setting up a call? Tell your recruiter what you would like to learn more about. We'll try to find a Googler who can answer your questions in an informal phone conversation.

Role Clarity

Google is home to a wide variety of opportunities. Learn about the differences between types of roles and about the day-to-day work of Googlers on various teams.

Culture

People are Google's secret to success. Googlers are passionate, curious, creative, and sincere about building for everyone. This means a culture of collaborative, helpful people who weave equity, inclusion, and belonging into our daily work.

Community

We work together, not the same. Meet our internal communities that are dedicated to creating a deeper sense of belonging at Google. If you would like to speak to someone about an Employee Resource Group (ERG), let us know which one(s), and we will put you in touch.

Mock Interview

Feel confident heading into your Google interview. Practice mock interview questions with a Googler to supplement the interview prep materials we provide.

Relocation

Change can be hard, but with great risk comes great reward. Hear experiences (and tips) from Googlers who have made the move.
